

The News.

There is to be a grand rally to-night in front of the Myers House of all the Union forces of the city, for the purpose of testifying their appreciation of the splendid victory just achieved by our boys under the gallant Phil. Sheridan over the combined forces of Early and Breckenridge. There will be good speaking by several gentlemen, good music by the band, good singing by the choir, and a good time generally. The victory is one whose importance can hardly be overestimated. Fifteen battle flags, twenty-six cannon, one hundred and four officers bagged, and from four to six thousand prisoners are among the not results of Sheridan's week's work. If Early had whipped Sheridan at Frederick City, then again at Hagerstown and thoroughly routed him at Chambersburg and sent our fleeing and panic-stricken forces in disorder toward Philadelphia, we could then fully appreciate the state of mind Jeff Davis, Esq., is in about these days. When you hear the cannon to-night, come out—this is the signal.

Democratic Explanation of the Maine Election.

Hon. James Brooks, editor of the New York Express, took the stump for the Democratic ticket in Maine in the recent canvass, and on Monday found himself in Portland, tired and disgusted no doubt, and quite sure that the election was going against his party. It was a case which might naturally make man a little cross, for in the course of the canvass Mr. Brooks had had a good many of his old anti-slavery utterances brought up against him, and a good many of his diatribes against New England; he had to consort with men to whom he had been violently opposed when formerly in Maine, and now all that he had thus endured was to go for nothing. With these feelings, on that stormy Monday, while the votes were piling up against his friends, he sat down in Portland and wrote for the Express a novel explanation of the impending defeat, by which it would seem that all was going on well enough, until the ministers took hold on Sunday:

"Sunday (yesterday), ninety out of every hundred pulpits in the State were electrified—and about all that. The Democrats finished up their canvass Saturday night, and then went home to sleep and to be ready to go to 'meeting' Sunday morning. The priests then, generally, ninety out of every hundred in the State, began their electrifying. The protest was the 'Thanksgiving' which Mr. Lincoln (the President) had purposely pre-arranged to be on the Sunday (Sept. 11) preceding the Maine election. I cannot tell how many pulpits there are in the State probably 2000 or 3000, and of these 90 per cent. were electrifying all day Sunday for Lincoln. In Portland there was publicly held, Sunday night, a Republican meeting, in which three negroes were paraded purposely to be shown only to stimulate and excite the people."

ANOTHER WAR DEMOCRAT FOR LINCOLN.—Hon. Francis B. Cutting, one of our most distinguished War Democrats, publishes the following card in the Times:

New York, September 20.

To the Editor of the New York Times:

My attention has been called to the fact that my name appears in the World newspaper in the list of Vice Presidents (Stand No. 1) of the McClellan ratification meeting held in this city, on the 17th. This use of it was unknown to me, and wholly unauthorized by me.

I had no part in the election of Mr. Lincoln, and I have no objection to his being elected, but I intend to vote for him in November next, in opposition to the platform and candidates of the Chicago Convention, believing that by a vigorous prosecution of the war the rebellion will be overthrown sooner than by an immediate cessation of hostilities, or by a resort to the arts of diplomacy. Your obedient servant,

F. B. CUTTING.

Seeing that Gen. McClellan was one of the first men to recommend a draft: that he urged emancipation as a military necessity; that he ordered the wholesale arrest of the Maryland Legislature; and has often declared against any suspension of the war—seeing these things, we say, the following from the speech of Mr. Van Allen, a N. Y. delegate to the Chicago Convention was not a bad hit:

"In fact, gentlemen, the nomination of George B. McClellan quashes the indictment which we (Democrats) have drawn against the administration."

The rebel paper at Atlanta says, as a soldier was walking with a sack of corn on his back, a shell entered the sack and exploded, without injury to the man—but it went against his grain—dreadfully.

Governor Vance, of North Carolina, it is said, is a candidate for the rebel Senate this winter, and it is intimated that he has aspirations for Jeff Davis' chair.

The Green Lake Spectator, published at Berlin, has given up the ghost. Reason: print paper costs twenty-five cents per pound. That will be the epitaph of many a poor printer if these prices continue another year.

The new railroad Post Office system was inaugurated Monday evening on the route between Washington and New York.

It is estimated that the number of men to be furnished by the draft just begun will not exceed 150,000.

State News.

The Madison Journal says that Mr. Seegar, of the town of Springfield, in this county, has raised a crop of this season which is worthy of mention. He had a crop of white winter wheat which measured 37½ bushels to the acre, and weighed 64 pounds to the bushel. He harvested 1450 bushels spring wheat, giving 19 bushels to the acre, and also 100 bushels of barley, giving a fair yield per acre, though exactly how much we do not know. It should be noted that these crops were all drilled in and while this farm, under good management did so well, others adjoining scarcely more than returned the seed sown.

The Watertown Democrat says on the night of 15th inst., Dennis Crowley of the town of Watertown, had a horse stolen from his barn, which is described as a black Stallion, five years old, white hind feet and a white star on the forehead.

On the same night, Owen Collins of the same town, also had stolen a bay gelding four years old, with a black main, tail and legs, white star on the forehead, and white hind feet.

On the same night, J. Q. Hull, of the same town, had stolen a two seated black buggy, double harness, and a black Buffalo robe.

A reward of fifty dollars has been offered for the recovery of the above property, or for the apprehension of the thieves.

WANTED IMMEDIATELY—ORNS, SOCKS, KRAUT, PICKLES, DRIED FRUITS, RAISINS.

Scoury, the scourge of the army, is rapidly increasing. Thousands of men are sickening and dying for want of vegetables and acids, the antidote of scurvy. Let each Ad Society and individual send us at least one bushel or barrel of onions, and one jar, keg or barrel of pickles or sauerkraut. In making pickles for the army, it is essential to use the best vinegar, to insure their safety in the heat of a Southern climate.

Pickled and spiced potatoes are an excellent remedy for scurvy, but not a palatable edible. In moderate quantities they are very valuable. Barrels containing onions should be pierced with finger-holes, to admit air freely.

Dried fruits are invaluable, greatly preferable to canned fruits. Let every Ad Society and individual, even, if deprived of them for home use, dry, or stew, or make cordial, of all blackberries within reach, for the use of hospitals. One cupful will often save a life. A telegram from Dr. Newberry calls for 1,000 pounds of raisins per week for the Gangrene Hospital. Save, wash, and forward every rag.

Men and women of the Northwest, be up and doing! Unless the demand is promptly met, thousands must fall victims to the insidious foe. You have saved the army before Vicksburg—save it before Atlanta, and on the Mississippi. Mark every package carefully: Northwestern Sanitary Commission, 65 Madison Street, Chicago.

E. B. McCAGG, Resident N. W. Sanitary Commissioner.

Exit Printer's Union.

The Printer's Union of this city has been practically disbanded. At its last meeting what was left of its members sensibly resolved to give up the contest for a uniform scale, and each printer was instructed to make the best bargain he could with his employer. This is as it should be. Hereafter, wages will be adjusted in accordance with the state of the labor market. There will be no conflicts between employers and employees, and the men will really make more money in the long run, because relieved of the enforced idleness of repeated strikes.

The Printer's Union of this city might have lived some years longer were it not for the consummate folly and selfishness of the men who controlled it. Because in prosperous times the newspaper proprietors submitted to their exactions rather than to have trouble, they became possessed of the insane notion that they could permanently control the whole business. They so directed matters that all their officers were to draw checks to pay the workmen. All the internal regulations of the union were made by the Printer's Union.

But even this assumption might have been submitted to were it not for the outrageous demands which were finally made by the Union. In the case of the Tribune, they claimed the right to say what advertisements should or should not go into the paper. It was this case which finally convinced the newspaper proprietors that the Union must be put down, as it has become an intolerable nuisance. The demand for an increase of thirty-three per cent. in wages at a time when the newspaper proprietors were suffering from the enormous increase of the price of white paper, capped the climax, and so the leading journals gave the Union the go-by.

It may well be understood, once for all, by the printers throughout the country, that while compositions will always command good wages in New York, none who belong to a combination will be employed hereafter. Newspaper proprietors cannot afford to employ men who act on the highwayman's principle of "your money or your life," by "striking" for higher wages at twelve o'clock at night. Hereafter the workmen will meet their employers on equal terms in adjusting the scale of the several offices.—N. Y. World.

GENERAL G. WILFORD says that the reason why the Chicago Democrats call the war a failure is, that if it succeeds it makes a failure of them.

GENERAL GILMORE is now at Hudson, New York, Superintending the casting of artillery of a new and approved pattern, devised by himself.

GOVERNOR AUSTIN BLAIR, of Michigan, one of the most true-hearted and eloquent public men, will take the stump during the coming canvass.

SWARTZ'S CRISTAL BLUE AND BLEACHING PREPARATION.—This Preparation is much superior and cheaper than any other Blue, requiring no preparation for use, and is the only Article adapted for bleaching and restoring clothes, followed by age, or bad washing, to a pure white, without injury. It does not rot the water and clothes, giving them a "muddy blue" color, like indigo, but is perfectly soluble, leaving the water clear; and imparts a delicate blue-white tint to articles, without discoloring or staining, and is warranted not to injure the most delicate fabric, and when known by housekeepers will supersede all others.

It has now been in use in the N. E. States for over ten years, and invariably given satisfaction, and is of the same standard quality as when first introduced, but owing to the numerous cheap and worthless imitations that have been put into the market, we have been compelled to adopt the new PATENT SAFETY BOXES which cannot be imitated; and being put in this style it is more economical than other Blues, as there is no waste, the arrangement of the Boxes being such that the slightest quantity can be used if necessary.

CONRAD & YANKINS are the sole agents for the above preparation in this country. Price 15 cts. per box. The Trade supplied at a liberal discount.
